A Thanksgiving Prayer

Heavenly Creator,

In this season of gratitude and abundance, we give You thanks for our many blessings as we pray for all who struggle with hunger and want.

Be with them in the dark of night, when all hope seems lost.

Keep their faith strong as they await relief.

And let Your goodness flow through our hearts and hands as we reach out to one another in the full, true joy of Thanksgiving in Christ.

Amen

A Message from the Sisters of the Holy Trinity, Mexico Missions:

I would like take this opportunity to greet you, and thank you on behalf of all the Trinitarian nuns and myself for all the support received from the faithful of the Parish of San Ambrosio. We greatly appreciate the support you give to make this donation possible.

The reason for this letter is to infinitely thank you for all the unconditional support that the Parish of San Ambrosio provides to our missions in Mexico. We recognize the tireless work that Barbara does in the Parish so that this resource reaches our mission. We also value the great solidarity that the faithful of this beloved Parish have shown for so many years for this mission. Only with this support and joining forces is it possible for us to benefit our most needy young women who are in our homes.

In our Homes, we promote comprehensive formation, providing human support, spiritual training in values, evangelization and catechesis. In our programs we encourage girls to have training in the Bible, to be able to perform their sacraments, Eucharistic celebrations, and we offer them monthly retreats and the annual Youth Easter retreat during Holy Week. We also promote training workshops that allow them to have elements and resources for life and to have a decent job. As well as integrating them into Primary, Secondary and High School. We also support girls who have reached the age of majority and do not have a safe place or do not have the support of a family member and are starting out in the world of work or continuing at university.

We also promote programs to help families, with support meetings and psychological monitoring, parenting school and training in values.

The girls and young people come from very poor families, from places of risk and danger, where their lives are put at risk due to drugs, alcohol, mistreatment, abuse, poverty, risk of human trafficking.

With the support we receive from the Parish, we can little by little dignify the spaces of the house, giving them maintenance. Financially support some teachers, hold monthly retreats by purchasing materials and financially support the Priests who celebrate and support the retreats and Eucharists. Buy school supplies and financially support transportation for girls who go to school. Celebrate the girls' birthdays, gatherings such as Christmas dinner, the congregation's own parties, graduations, celebration of the Sacraments, Youth Easter, as well as supporting some families and girls who are most in need. You can also support the religious formation of the sisters.

We recognize and value the support that the Parish has been giving all this time. I want you to know that every effort you make means light and hope, an opportunity to make it possible for young women to have a better quality of life and better opportunities. Each of you are part of this mission... when a girl overcomes herself and moves forward, it is the best reward we can have.

Please convey our gratitude and congratulations to all the faithful of this Parish. From the Sisters of the Holy Trinity Mexico City
